News Release

The BC Northern Real Estate Board has donated $3,000 to the Red Cross' "BC Fire Relief Fund" to support those affected by wildfires.

British Columbia is currently experiencing its most devastating wildfire season on record, and the threat persists as we move into the fall. Over 11,000 individuals have had their lives disrupted by evacuation, and many more continue to live with the ongoing stress of evacuation alerts. An estimated 400 structures have been lost to the fires, leaving communities facing the task of recovery.

"Our hearts go out to the resilient people in the Okanagan and across BC who have been affected by evacuations and loss," states Breanne Cote, Chair of the BC Northern Real Estate Board. "We know from experience of past wildfires that the journey of reconstruction will pose challenges, yet it is achievable with support."

For those interested in contributing to the British Columbia Fires Appeal to assist in the ongoing recovery efforts, donations can be made through this link.
